preaching worship 10 a. m. Subject of morning sermon, "True Patriotism." Praise and preaching service 8 p. m. Subject of evening sermon, "Giving a Man Another Chance." All announcements for the week will appear in the church Bulletin. At both the Sunday morning and Sunday evening services there will be an abundance of special music. Sunday evening the special music consist of anthems, solos and a male quartet. Our music is second to none and should be heard by every person in the city. Come and bring your friends to all our services. Strangers and visitors are given a special invitation. J. W. BURNS, Minister.

Broadway Methodist Church.
A large audience is desired for each of the Sunday services. At the 11 o'clock hour the Honorable H. E. Swan of Oklahoma City will deliver his lecture, "The Church in Action Against the Liquor Traffic." Mr. Swan is the original organizer of the Oklahoma Anti Saloon League and is a thrilling and interesting orator. Come out and hear him on the cause that is dear to all our hearts. He comes under the auspices of the state Anti-Saloon League. At night the pastor will preach on the subject, "The Philosophy of Eternal Punishment." Special music at this service. Our Sunday school is surprisingly good and getting better all the time. We need the whole family. May we have you next Sunday? The infant baptism service was postponed on account of rain. It will be held Sunday at 10:40 a. m. Let all parents interested take notice and come prepared. E. R. WELCH, Pastor.

East Ardmore Presbyterian.

Broadway Baptist Church.
Sunday will be a great day with the Broadway Baptists. A short session of the bible school will be held at 9:30 a. m. for all those who do not take part in the children's day program. At the close of the bible school there will be a reception of members by the church.

At 11 a. m. will be held our children's day program. At the close of the bible school there will be reception of members by the church.

At 11 a. m. will be held our children's day worship. With great care Mrs. Love and her assistants have prepared for this day, which will prove an inspiration to all.

Within this week the church has installed a new baptistry which will make the administration of Christian baptism duly impressive. The pastor has arranged also a beautiful responsive reading for this holy ordinance.

An especial feature of this day will be the dedication of this new baptistry by the baptism of several members of the bible school who have recently been converted to Christ. No pains are being spared to make this day worthy of the church and her Lord.

The young people will meet at 7 p. m.

At the 8 o'clock evening worship the minister will speak and baptize six members of Mrs. Cooper's class.

The Brotherhood chorus will sing at the evening worship. Everybody is most cordially invited to worship with us. DAVID H. COOPER, Minister.

Scotty Got a Fright.

An old Scotchman had been ill for a long time, and it was agreed by the family that the minister should be called in. When he came he told the old man he would have to leave his worldly cares aside and prepare for that terrible visitor, who was waiting at the door.

"And who's that, minister?" "That greatest enemy of ours — Death!"

"What a fright ye gien me. Aw thoct it wis the wife's mither!"

Woman—Man.

Charles Dickens was particular about the placing of his comma, and one can understand such precision when recalling what a hash a misplaced point can make in an author's meaning.

At a woman's dinner, recently, one of the toasts ran, "Woman! without her, man is a brute," but the compositor set it up as "Woman without her man, is a brute."

Press Club to Dine President.

New York, June 30.—President Wilson has accepted the invitation of the New York Press Club to be its guest of honor at the annual dinner of the organization to be given at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel tonight. The Club has had as its guests every occupant of the White House since President Grant. The President's acceptance of the invitation comes so close upon his renomination that it is expected his speech to the newspaper men will constitute something of an "opening
